

SCHOLARS OF THE SYMPOSIUM

Shaping the discourse of tomorrow. Connecting bright minds today.

Every year, we invite motivated German-speaking students to our one-week programme in London. As a Scholar you get:

- Exclusive access to discussions on key European issues and German-British relations
- Guidance from leading experts in politics, business and culture
- Small-group coffee chats and workshops with our speakers
- Curated social and networking events with fellow scholars in London

WHEN	WE TAKE OVER	APPLY BY
1 – 5 Feb 2027 Arrival 31 Jan, departure 6 Feb	Accommodation Plus breakfast and all events. €50 participation fee	6 Dec 2026 11:45 PM UK time

Who can apply: German- and English-speaking students or apprentices outside the UK, born after 1995, with a EU/CH passport.

How to apply: Online form with your details, four short questions (in German), a 60–90 second video and your CV.

"Sitting face-to-face with leading politicians and business leaders from across Europe was a unique opportunity I won't forget."
Gardinia Borto (Student Ambassador Schwarzkopf Stiftung, SOTS 2023)

"The LSE German Symposium has broadened my perspectives and sparked my curiosity to explore new topics in greater depth."
Florian Stupp (Co-Founder Public Makers Initiative, SOTS 2025)

SUPPORTED BY

Hertie School sponsors three scholarship places

Apply by 6 December 2026
lsesu-german-society.co.uk/sots | german.sots@lsesu.org